

THE MAGICIAN'S APPLAUSE

Premiere Chat Record

Tracy: Artisan of timing...

Heather: Magician helps you navigate matter with intuition... soo helpful.

Sonika: So the way you want to think about it is once you have a "measure" of time set - such as a date of when you want to create sales - intuition is what collapses that timeline for you.

Heather: Got it.

RJ: Great distinction. So when one is feeling blocked in the sab, just loosen up, let go & tap intuition?

Sonika: You would actually use the magician to alchemize the saboteur. Figure out what the block is specifically and then do what the Magician would do.

RJ: Okay, got it. Ohhh, this is me! Being open & not looking at what happened many times before is the thing I bump up against constantly.

RJ: Play the game of possibilities. Yet!

Genesis: TY! More great Insights!
